

Programme

SURVIVING IN POST-SOCIALISM: IMPLICATIONS FOR POLICY MAKERS

Ljubljana, Grand Hotel Business

November 25-26, 2016

Friday, 25.11.

11.30-12.30 Arrival of attendees

12.30- 13.30 Lunch

13.30 - 13.45 Welcome address

Tijana Defar Friedrich Ebert Stiftung, Zagreb

Sergej Flere Center for the Study of Post-Socialist Societies (CePSS)

13.45-15.00 Research session 1: Economic, ideological and political trends in postsocialist countries

Rudi Klanjšek Socioeconomic realities and trends in Four SEE Countries

Mirko Petrić, Željka Zdravković, Inga Tomić-Koludrović

Lifestyle changes in four SEE countries – changes in values, material and cultural consumption and economic crisis

Miran Lavrič, Danijela Gravilović, Ivan Puzek, Andrej Kirbiš

The Effects of the Economic Crisis on Values and Attitudes in Southeast Europe

Sergej Flere, Andrej Kirbiš

The authoritarian temptation: political shifts in post-socialist Europe

15.00-15.30 Coffee break

15.30-16.30 Panel discussion 1: The (potential) role of political actors in recent and future developments in the four countries of SEE

Speakers: Policy makers from the four countries (Emina Abrahamsdotter, Žarko Šunderić), Danijela Gavrilović, Mirko Petrić, Ismet Kumalić, Rudi Klanjšek

Chair: Marina Tavčar Krajnc

16.30-17.00 Coffee break

17.00-18.30 Research session 2: General overview of survival strategies in the four countries

Predrag Cvetičanin, Mirko Petrić, Inga Tomić-Koludrović and Miran Lavrič

Typology of household strategies in four SEE countries

Inga Tomić-Koludrović, Mirko Petrić, Ivan Puzek

Internal household dynamics, gender relations in four SEE countries

Adnan Efendić Economic performance of households and ethnic diversity in Bosnia and Herzegovina

Muamer Halilbašić and Ismet Kumalić

Survival strategies of households and social policies in Bosnia and Herzegovina

19.30 Dinner

Saturday 26.11.

9.00-10.30 Research session 3: Survival strategies among vulnerable groups

Dragan Bagić Typology of survival strategies of economically (partially) inactive households in Croatia

Miran Lavrič Survival strategies among precarios households in four SEE countries

Lyn Šikić Mićanović

Survival strategies among the Roma

Andrej Naterer, Augustin Derado, Ismet Kumalić, Nemanja Krstić

Most relevant and interesting survival strategies among major vulnerable groups

10.30-11.00 Coffee break

11.00-12.30 Panel discussion 2: Potentials for adopting more adequate social policies in view of identified survival strategies of households

Speakers: Decision makers from the four countries (Nataša Vučković, Helena Štimac Radin), Predrag Cvetičanin, Inga Tomić-Koludrović, Muamer Halilbašić, Miran Lavrič

Chair: Mirko Petrić

13.00-14.00 Lunch and departure